

Install Foradian's Rupee Font in Linux

For Fedora

1. Download the file named Rupee Foradian.ttf from the the Foradian Technology blog <http://blog.foradian.com/rupee-font-version-20>”
2. Just copy the ttf file to the .font directory under the user home directory .
3. Run the command " fc-cache" and use the font through all the applications.

For Debian

1. Download the file named Rupee Foradian.ttf from the the Foradian Technology blog “http://blog.foradian.com/rupee-font-version-20 ”
2. In your Debian machine login as root or use su and give following command :

```
mkdir /usr/share/fonts/ttf
cp Rupee_Foradian.ttf /usr/share/fonts/ttf
apt-get install ttmkfdir
cd /usr/share/fonts/ttf
ttmkfdir > fonts.scale
mkfontdir
cd /usr/share/fonts/ttf/
chmod 644 /usr/share/fonts/ttf/Rupee_Foradian.ttf
```

For Ubuntu

- 1.1. Download the file named Rupee Foradian.ttf from the the Foradian Technology blog “http://blog.foradian.com/rupee-font-version-20 ”
2. Just open the font and click 'Install font' button on bottom left of the font viewer.